YOUNG COMPOSER ... Edmundo Najera will conduct his own piano rhapsody at the South Bay-Torrance Civic Symphony concert on Nov. 8 at Redondo Union High School Auditorium. The young composer presented his first work, an operetta, three years ago while a student at Mira Costa High School.

Symphony to Give Original Rhapsody

Edmundo Najera will conduct his own composition, "The Star Rhapsody," with Collette Nance, Torrance concert pianist, as soloist at the Nov. 8 program of the South Bay-Torrance Civic Symphony at Redondo High School Auditorium.

Najera, who is 21, wrote an operetta, "Miracle of San Isidro," while still a student at Mira Costa High School. He wrote the original score, choral arrangements, did stage direction and orchestrations and appeared on the stage, as Francisco.

Other Compositions
In May, 1955, he presented another operetta, "Chanson D'Amour," also at Mira Costa. He also has written many piano solos, vocal compositions, a one-act opera, and other choral music. He attended UCLA for two years and attended the University of California last year. He went with the University Glee Club on a month's tour of Japan and has been invited to return to Japan after graduation. He also has sung with the Roger Wagner Chorale.

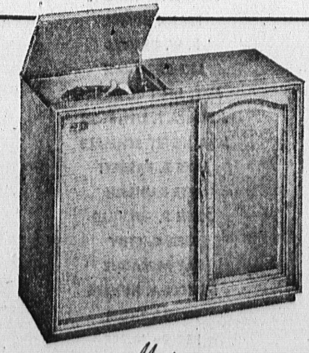

"The Star Rhapsody," scheduled on Nov. 8, was originally a vocal work based on a poem called "Star," but was later extended into a piano solo and has been completed with orchestral accompaniment. He also has written two other piano rhapsodies.

The South Bay-Torrance Civic Symphony, with Elyse Aehle conducting, will furnish the orchestral accompaniment.

In December, the orchestra will present the third Christmas Pantomime, "The Nutcracker Prince," with many local dancers, actors, and musicians. Rehearsals are held Mondays at 7:30 in the music room of Redondo High.
